Name and Last Name (without title)

Institution

COUNTRY ABBREVIATION - Zip code, City, Address

mail.author@adress.example

TITLE OF ARTICLE

Abstract

The abstract in the language of the article should contain from 250 to 300 words. The word "Abstract" should be written above the text of the abstract and centered. The abstract text should be in Times New Roman font size 10 with a spacing of 1, indented with left and right margins of a single tab. Below the summary text, separated by one space, from minimum 5 keywords up to 10 keywords are listed in the language of the article. The abstract in the language of the article should contain from 250 to 300 words. The word "Abstract" should be written above the text of the abstract and centered. The abstract text should be in Times New Roman font size 10 with a spacing of 1, indented with left and right margins of a single tab. Below the summary text, separated by one space, from minimum 5 keywords up to 10 keywords are listed in the language of the article. The abstract in the language of the article should contain from 250 to 300 words. The word "Abstract" should be written above the text of the abstract and centered. The abstract text should be in Times New Roman font size 10 with a spacing of 1, indented with left and right margins of a single tab. Below the summary text, separated by one space, from minimum 5 keywords up to 10 keywords are listed in the language of the article. The abstract in the language of the article should contain from 250 to 300 words. The word "Abstract" should be written above the text of the abstract and centered. The abstract text should be in Times New Roman font size 10 with a spacing of 1, indented with left and right margins of a single tab.

Keywords: at most, ten, keywords, in, the language, of the article

1. Section

Quotations within the text should be cited as follows: (Mihaljević 2014: 135). In the footnotes,[1] citations should be formatted as follows.[2]

1.1. Subsection

Quotations (shorter than three lines) should be marked with quotation marks ("quote"), text within quotations, or some other form of quotation marks ('text'), and meanings that are emphasized or indicate specific words or phrases and foreign words with single-quotes ('meaning').

> If the quotation is longer than three lines, it should be separated from the text of the article in such a way that it is separated by a space from the following text and should be written in Times New Roman font size 10 with a spacing of 1 and indented with left and right margins by one tab. Such quotes are enclosed within quotation marks.

---

[1] Footnotes should be avoided, except when explaining parts of the text or individual words in the text. If footnotes are used, they should be indicated after punctuation marks. In the notes, the text should be in Times New Roman, double-aligned, size 10 font with a spacing of 1.

[2] For more on this see Mihaljević 2014: 135.

 See Mihaljević 2014: 135.

2. Section

Articles written in Croatian, English, and Italian are accepted. Articles must be proofread. Authors are required to follow the article format guidelines for the graphic presentation of the text.

2.1. Subsection

Figures, tables, charts and the like are numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals (e.g. Figure 1). Images must be submitted as a separate attachment in digital .jpg format.

3. Section

All the annexes in the text (lists, tables, etc.) should be placed after Literature bibliography and before the abstract in another language. Authors are required to submit a certificate of copyright for the use of images, photographs, and other materials whose copyright is protected by any applicable copyright laws and related acts.

3.1. Subsection

When stating the names of the respondents who participated in conducted research, the authors are obliged to submit a certificate of consent from the respondents that their names may be published in the Journal and that they agreed to participate in the research.

Literature

Unpublished sources

The second line of each item listed in the literature list should be indented by one tab.

The literature section first lists unpublished sources, then published sources, print publications, and lastly online sources.

Printed publications

The list of references and sources should be written alphabetically at the end of the article and before the abstract in another language, in accordance with the examples described in the Instructions for Designing Appendixes.

Each literary reference is listed alphabetically by the author's last name.

Titles by the same author are listed chronologically, with publications from the same year being denoted thus: (2015^a, 2015^b, 2015^c, etc.).

A dash with no spaces should be used when citing pages in the literature section (pp. 23-35).

Internet resources

Only sources that do not contain the author's names or titles are cited under internet sources.

TITLE OF THE ARTICLE IN ANOTHER LANGUAGE

Abstract / Riassunto

A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature. A summary of the title and keywords in a language in which the article is not written should stand at the end of the article and behind the list of literature.

Key words / Parole chiave: at most, ten, keywords, in, the language, of this summary